STRATEGIC PLAN OVERVIEW

ARTS VISION

1. To maintain “Arts in Basic Curriculum” status
2. To be recognized as a School for the Arts.
3. To employ & maintain FT instructors in Vocal/General Music, Instrumental Music, Dance, Art, and Drama.
4. To develop a fully arts infused curriculum with collaboration between arts teachers/non-arts teachers.
5. To establish and maintain quality facilities, equipment, and supplies/materials in order to grow and refine a quality, comprehensive arts program.
6. To expose students to diverse media and appropriate venues through performances, exhibits, field experiences, and Artists-in-Residences.
7. To provide community outreach opportunities for students through the arts.

ARTS MISSION

To reveal a passion for learning, accommodate differences, teach appreciation, and stimulate creativity and imagination in, and through, a standards-based arts infused curriculum.

ARTS GOALS

- To develop a quality, sequential, comprehensive arts program.
- To provide state-of-the-art materials, supplies, equipment, and facilities to meet the “Opportunities-to-Learn-Standards” (OTLS)
- To provide and implement quality community-building & professional development opportunities in the arts.

POINTS OF PRIDE

- In addition to being a recipient of the ABC Advancement Grant, there is a creative outlet in the arts for 100% of our students regardless of age or ability.
- We operate on a unique schedule that allows all students flexibility in a STEAM centered learning environment.
- Our parents and community stakeholders are engaged through a plethora of artist-in-residencies, performances and hands-on engagements.
