POINTS OF PRIDE

- Stone is consistently rated excellent on state report cards and one of the top performing schools in Greenville County, and we attribute that to our approach to learning through arts integration.
- We have a highly skilled faculty trained in arts integration and arts-based curriculums, and every teacher is expected to teach through the arts. We also have very low turnover of our staff.
- Stone offers related arts classes above and beyond those typically offered - they are visual art, dance, music, theatre, and strings.
