

Artifact Title: Art Supply Carts

Strategic Plan Connection:

The carts directly align with the strategic goal of increasing the variety and quantity of art supplies available to both academic and arts departments and support the action step of preparing arts carts for each content area. By equipping teachers with readily accessible materials for arts-integrated instruction, this initiative promotes creativity, collaboration, and student engagement while advancing the school's commitment to providing quality arts education opportunities for every student every day.

Artifact Description:

This artifact highlights the implementation of art supply carts distributed across all academic and elective departments, including Visual and Performing Arts, Mathematics, Science, English Language Arts, Social Studies, Special Education, Computer Science, World Languages, and JROTC. These mobile resources support the integration of arts-based instructional strategies across the curriculum, providing teachers with accessible materials to enhance creativity, student engagement, critical thinking, and interdisciplinary learning. The supply carts demonstrate Fairfield Central High School's commitment to the Arts in Basic Curriculum framework by ensuring that all students have opportunities to experience and apply artistic processes within diverse content areas.

Inspiring Creativity:

This artifact aligns with the ABC Framework, Inspiring Creativity by providing teachers and students across all content areas with access to artistic materials and creative learning opportunities. The art supply carts encourage educators to incorporate hands-on, arts-integrated experiences that allow students to explore concepts through innovation, imagination, and self-expression.

ABC Certified Schools: Artifacts of Evidence Worksheet

Use this as a worksheet to ensure that each artifact submitted as part of your annual collection includes all the necessary elements when presented. Remember that any media linked here must be submitted in the Media Folder within your Google Drive's Folder for this year's artifacts collection.

Artifact Title

Art Supply Carts

Summary Description

This artifact highlights the implementation of art supply carts distributed across all academic and elective departments, including Visual and Performing Arts, Mathematics, Science, English Language Arts, Social Studies, Special Education, Computer Science, World Languages, and JROTC. These mobile resources support the integration of arts-based instructional strategies across the curriculum, providing teachers with accessible materials to enhance creativity, student engagement, critical thinking, and interdisciplinary learning. The supply carts demonstrate Fairfield Central High School's commitment to the Arts in Basic Curriculum framework by ensuring that all students have opportunities to experience and apply artistic processes within diverse content areas.

Philosophical Framework Connection and rationale

This artifact aligns with the ABC Framework, Inspiring Creativity by providing teachers and students across all content areas with access to artistic materials and creative learning opportunities. The art supply carts encourage educators to incorporate hands-on, arts-integrated experiences that allow students to explore concepts through innovation, imagination, and self-expression.

Connection to the Arts Education Strategic Plan

The carts directly align with the strategic goal of increasing the variety and quantity of art supplies available to both academic and arts departments and support the action step of preparing arts carts for each content area. By equipping teachers with readily accessible materials for arts-integrated instruction, this initiative promotes creativity, collaboration, and student engagement while advancing the school's commitment to providing quality arts education opportunities for every student every day.

SC Standard(s) Addressed

Creating- I can make artwork using a variety of Materials techniques and processes.

Name and title of contributor(s): Cyrus, Livingston